Florida Business Inducted Into Vent-A-Hood Hall of Fame
At National Distributors Conference in Dallas

RICHARDSON, Texas – Dynamic Distributors, of Miami, was inducted into the Vent-A-Hood® Hall of Fame in a recent ceremony at Vent-A-Hood's national distributors' conference in Dallas.

David Zisman, president of Dynamic Distributors, and Richard Kaplan, director of sales, were individually recognized for their longevity selling Vent-A-Hood products. They were presented a plaque for the company, and each received a Hall of Fame sapphire ring customized with the Vent-A-Hood logo and Magic Lung® blower commemorating 20 years of service.

Dynamic Distributors is a second-generation family business. Originally established by Zisman's father, Jack, the company has been a distributor of Vent-A-Hood products for more than 20 years faithfully serving the dealer network throughout Florida.

"We're incredibly grateful for the long-term relationship we've had with Dynamic Distributors over the years," said Blake Woodall, director of sales for Vent-A-Hood.
