Bob and Janet Carter Inducted into Vent-A-Hood Hall of Fame

RICHARDSON, Texas – Vent-A-Hood, the company that created the modern residential range hood, recently inducted longtime distributors Bob and Janet Carter, of Atlanta, into the Vent-A-Hood Hall of Fame. The couple was honored for almost 50 years of service at a special dinner at The Ritz-Carlton in Buckhead, Ga., during Vent-A-Hood's 2006 national distributors meeting.

The Carters joined the Vent-A-Hood family in 1956 when Past-President and CEO Miles Woodall, Jr., hired Bob Carter to run Vent-A-Hood's Southeast Division. With wife Janet by his side, Bob grew the business and was awarded the distributorship for all southeastern states in 1962. As the couple had children and settled down, Bob focused the business on the immediate territory to create what is known today as Vent-A-Hood of Georgia. After retiring in 2003, the Carters passed their business onto their sons, Tommy and Larry.

"Our company shares a unique relationship with some distributors who have been with us over multiple generations, and Vent-A-Hood of Georgia is one of those," said Vent-A-Hood President and CEO Miles "Skip" Woodall III. "When my father entrusted our growth throughout the southeast to Bob, it was the beginning of a lifelong friendship and a move that made our brand a household name to countless customers."

For their loyalty and enduring passion for the business, Woodall presented Bob with a Hall of Fame ring and a similarly designed pendant for Janet, who could not attend.
